Optional Access to Print Instructional Materials

Per state statute, students are given the opportunity to receive their core instructional materials (textbook) in print or digital format. All students are provided access to instructional materials in a digital format, when available.

Middle and High School students and parents have the option of receiving their take-home materials in a print format.

If print materials are required, complete this form and return to your teacher.

Required- Indicate the reason(s) that print materials are being requested.

- Don't have a computer or digital device to use at home
- Don't have internet access at home
- We have multiple people using the digital device(s) and/or computer at home
- I prefer to use print materials
- Other- _____

Does the student have a "smart" phone that has online/internet capabilities?

- Yes No phone No, student has a phone, but not internet access

We are requesting our student receive, along with any digital access provided, a print copy of the instructional materials used in their courses for the following school year.
